Upland merchants are busy planning a three day celebration marking the opening of the downtown concourse scheduled for June 27, 28 and 29.

One of the highlights planned by the Merchants Association will be the drawing for the Mustang set for Thursday evening at approximately 7:30 p.m. at the Kiosk. City officials will be on hand to oversee the actual drawing of the winning ticket.

Nineteen civic organizations in the city have notified the Merchants Association of their plans to take part in the "Grand Opening." More organizations are expected to join with the business people in celebration of Mall completion.

Stores in the downtown area will be open Thursday and Friday, June 27 and 28 until 9 p.m., but will close Saturday at the usual hour.

Being a Gas Company serviceman is no easy job. You have to be able to help customers in a number of ways, from adjusting an appliance to advice on how to seal the most flavor into a steak.

Our servicemen are well trained for their job. They have to be. We're an investor-owned company. And investor ownership is like having two employers. You have to satisfy customers, the people who rely on our service, by being efficient. And you have to be efficient to satisfy your owners. For they're the people who invest in our business and make the service possible.

This means we work hard all the time to give the best possible service, at reasonable rates. Investor ownership is that "extra step"—why we have servicemen who are extra courteous and skillful, as well as being efficient. It's the reason we look for economies in every way possible and have been able to reduce gas rates six times in the last five years.

And, when we can serve you well and make a profit, that makes everyone happy. For that's how we stay in business.

AL Riding Club Marks Birthday

"It was a very good year," according to the membership of the Alta Loma Riding Club, celebrating its first twelve months of operation.

Charter officers were feted recently at the Kapu-Kai Restaurant in Cucamonga when new officers were installed, and a progress report was given by Harley D. Rice Jr., out-going president.

In giving a brief history of the club, Rice reminded members that the association grew out of citizen action against re-zoning propositions that could have "phased out" horse owners in un-incorporated areas of San Bernardino County. "Now we have made the beginning," said Rice, speaking for the club founders. "The membership at this point has a choice of many directions the club may take in the future."

Charter officers singled out for recognition included Rice, vice-president J.C. Fryman, treasurer R.T. Nelson, secretary Betty Fryman, and board members Dr. Ed Kelly, Ray Burdick, and Elaine Vix.

Board members continuing to serve are Jimmy Hines, Doug Fleetwood and Bill Atterberry. New officers will be R.T. Nelson, president; Frank Balensiefer, vice-president; Dorothy Boatright, treasurer; Jill Clements, secretary; and board members Lou Radka and Joe Johnston.

OFFICERS "HAND OVER THE REINS" ... J. C. Fryman and H. D. Rice Jr., out-going charter vice president and president of the Alta Loma Riding Club, install their replacements for the club's second year of operation. Richard T. Nelson and Frank Balensiefer will be president and vice-president. Occasion was a banquet meeting at the Kapu-Kai restaurant.

Central Teacher To Study Non-Western History

Jacqueline Gore of Upland, fifth grade teacher at Central School in Cucamonga, has been selected as one of 42 participants in an institute for advanced study in non-Western history. Participants were selected from throughout the nation for the program which will be held from June 24 to August 2, 1968 at Western Washington State College.

The project, funded under the National Defense Education Act, will present history and culture of the Far East, South and Southeast Asia and sub-Saharan Africa. It is aimed at enabling teachers to create among their students an understanding of the non-West.

Under the direction of Dr. James McAree of the WWSU history department, the institute will be staffed by specialists in the geographic areas being studied plus specialists in elementary curriculum development and education media.

To The Editor

Cucamonga, Calif.
May 31, 1968

The Cucamonga Times,
Upland News,
Montclair Tribune

Dear Editor,

May I have a little "equal time" to remind your readers of a few more noble causes for which Mrs. Jorhman Veirs works? I have a copy of the Civil Liberties Union publication, Open Forum published in Los Angeles. A few of the stated aims are: To legalize pot, protect the privacy of homosexuals, fight loyalty oaths, print and distribute "arrest cards" (which will encourage many petty thieves) fight the House Un-American Activities Committee, fight road blocks and other police protections that we all need so desperately. The old darling of this group A. L. Wirin will be kept much too busy to be an annoyance to Gov. Reagan.

This is one organization that insults the name of American as used in their title. They claim to be supporting those who cannot afford council which is a cover for all the sordid, low level activities which they prefer. If Stop Reagan is the aim of one of its committees, it figures. Thank goodness there are enough in the center and to the "right" to cancel out every signature they can collect. Ronald Reagan has many more important things to do for everyone in California than to be disturbed about such publicity seeking nonsense.

Sincerely,
B. Burns

Your letter got through, but you didn't.

You should have called him on the phone. Sure it's long distance. But it only takes a few minutes.

And in those few minutes you get a chance to state a clear case. Plus a second chance, every time you haven't been clear enough. You can perceive and persuade. If necessary, gently gently persist. You can laugh (you've got a great laugh). Maybe even do your Cary Grant imitation.

Then you know what happens? While you're being more than just another letter in the in-box to him, he starts being more than just a title at an address to you.

That's when you start doing business.

The diocese of San Diego is sponsoring the program with the approval of the honorary chairman and host, the Most

Approximately 1,000 representatives from the western states, including clergy and laity, will gather to discuss the theme of the Congress and its application to current problems in the home, community and nation. Fencecraft Drops Pair; Three Pushing Leaders

UPLAND -- Action in the Upland American Little League varied from high - scoring settees to one - run thrillers this past week.

Fencecraft is still at the top of the loop, hard pressed by Pomona First Federal, the Junior Chamber and Shady Grove.

RESULTS

Manuel's Garage out-slugged Pomona First 16-12 with Copeland getting four for four including a grand slam homer for the winners and Carroll and Mosher hitting two homers apiece.

Upland Block shaded Shady Grove 5-2, and the Junior Chamber upended Fencecraft 7-6 with Lima getting two homers and Hawkins one for the winners and Wright one for the losers.

Upland Lions and Pacific Rock tied at 6-6, and Fencecraft dropped its second game of the season to Pomona First Federal 12-8 as Carroll's two run homer for the winners was a big hit and overcame the grand-slam homer of Talley for the losers.

Shady Grove bounced back to edge the Junior Chamber 3-2 with Raney hitting a three run homer in the bottom of the 8th to spell the margin of victory.

Upland Block overwhelmed Upland Lions 15-7, and in the process McIntosh got a grand slam homer and Diaz a four-bagger as well.

Manuel's Garage nipped Pacific Rock 7-6 despite a Grand slam homer by R. Chapman and a two-run homer by Phillips of the loser. Copeland was the decider for Manuel's hitting two home runs, the second winning the game in the bottom of the 6th.

STANDINGS

Fencecraft 7-2; Pomona First Federal 6-3; Junior Chamber 6-3; Shady Grove 6-3; Upland Block 4-5; Pacific Rock 3-5-1; Manuel's Garage 2-7; Upland Lions 1-7-1.

Alta Loma Elementary

Parents, teachers, students and guests were entertained by fourth grade students of the Alta Loma Elementary School at the May meeting of the PTA.

Mrs. Woods' class put on a square dance demonstration and Mrs. Vasquez's class presented "Ten Stepping Stones in California History". Much work was put into writing, directing acquiring costumes and making scenery by the teacher's and students, making the program a success.

Mrs. Gerald Bell presided over installation of the new officers for the coming year. The new officers are Mrs. Buel Anderson, president; Mr. Forwaller, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Harley Lovitt, secretary; Mrs. Gilbert Wells, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Dixon, historian; and Mrs. Lawrence Ornelas, parliamentarian.

The out going president was presented with a past president pin and a round of applause for a job well done this past year.

PTA installs

Special tribute was paid to Wauneta Walker a sixth grade teacher at the school. She is retiring this year after 42 years of teaching, the last 12 years at this school. She is moving to Nebraska after this term. Everyone will miss her when she is gone, but she still plans to serve others by donating her time and service at a convalescent hospital in her home town.

Chaffey Community Art Group Holds New Member Reception

Forty eight new members were added to the rolls of the Chaffey Community Art Association at a recent reception held at the Ontario home of Mrs. Edred Drew.

The annual event served to welcome new members and to introduce them to the Art Association and the afternoon's guest of honor, Betty Davenport Ford. Mrs. Ford, a former Ontario resident, exhibited six of her sculptures.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Stanley Book, Mrs. Philip White, Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Fred Ridington, Mrs. Drew and Mrs. Ford. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoke presided at the guest book. Mrs. Lovon Phillips, hostess chairman served coffee and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Powell had charge of the champagne.

All new members will be welcomed at the Association's Family potluck dinner on June 29 at the Alta Loma home of Mr. and Mrs. John Engel. Officials for the coming year will be elected at this meeting.

Dr. Wendell E. Harmon, a member of the Upland School District Board of Trustees for the past nine years was honored Tuesday evening when school board members presented him with a certificate of appreciation and commendation for his many years of public service.

Dr. Harmon's post has been filled by William S. Rugg of the Rugg Lumber Company.

Kogut Picked Up By Yankees

Upland High's star baseball backstop (catcher) Craig Kogut made his first move to the Major Leagues when he was recently picked by the New York Yankees for their Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, franchise.

Kogut, who just completed his senior year at Upland High, is playing for the Upland American Legion team (Post 73).

Mrs. Olga Assanelli

Mrs. Olga Assanelli, age 79 of Archibald Ave., Cucamonga, died June 9 at San Antonio Community Hospital. A home maker, she was a native of Italy, and lived in Cucamonga for 31 years.

She is survived by her husband, Tito; daughter-in-law Mrs. Maria Assanelli; and grandson, George Assanelli, all of Cucamonga.

Private services were held Tuesday; interment took place at Bellevue Mausoleum.

City Council Continues Budget Proposal Review

In order to enable the Upland City Council to approve or reject the proposed city budget at the next regular council meeting, June 18, the members called a special budget hearing Tuesday night, June 11 to review the $3,366,122 preliminary budget.

At the last meeting of the council, the full agenda prevented the city officials from complete and thorough discussion of the proposed increases in taxes and pay scales.

The council also passed the first reading of an ordinance which would change the council's meeting night from Tuesday to Monday.

The change would be effective the first Monday in August. It would accommodate the Upland News which, through a recent change in deadline schedules, cannot attend and report the meetings on Tuesdays.

The Council tables an appeal by the Bongiovanni Construction Co. to rezone 52 acres immediately south of Cable Airport, against the opposition of Dewey Cable, who said, "You're making a big mistake."

Cable has prevailed upon the council on a number of occasions to rezone this area from airport industrial to heavy manufacturing.

City Manager Elwin Alder said last Wednesday that he had spent more than an hour with the owner of the firm, discussing land use and "the only response we have received since then is disagreement."

The land is owned by Cable.

The council decided to write a letter to Bongiovanni furnishing him with conditions of the zone change.

During the first year of their eligibility under the 1966 G.I. Bill, 22,000 servicemen on active duty received educational training. More than half were enrolled in courses below the college level, according to the Veterans Administration.

Ballard Thanks All For Party Nomination

I first want to express my thanks to the Democratic Party for providing me with the Congressional nomination. With this vote of confidence, I will continue to take my campaign directly to the people and to ask for their support come November.

As we all know, our real work has just begun. Recognizing the divisions that are created by a contested primary, as a normal fact of any election, it is now our responsibility to unite and to move together in the same direction. For this reason, I wish to thank Mr. Husing for his offer to support me in the general election. And I also congratulate him on his fine showing together with the active participation of young people which his campaign was able to generate.

Our younger generation is increasing its involvement in the political life of this nation more and more. This was as apparent in the 33rd Congressional District Tuesday as it was in the New Hampshire primary. I only hope this interest and involvement continues into November. With it, America does remain the last, best hope for mankind.

County Employs Former HS Teacher

Mrs. Wendy Atwell has been hired by San Bernardino County Service Area #50 to be arts and crafts instructor for this summer's recreation program to be held at Alta Loma High School and Carnelian Elementary School from June 24 through July 27. Brochures will be available soon throughout the Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda area and will be distributed at the schools and county library.

Wood work has been a hobby of Mrs. Atwell's for a number of years; carving, making trophies and constructing various items. Painting, drawing, model building, knitting, plastics, ceramics, copper and leather are among the other crafts she practices. Mrs. Atwell plans to stress art and craft work which will be useful and serve a purpose this summer. More than one session will be held for youngsters through adults.

Mrs. Atwell is a graduate of Pasadena City College, received her B.A. in physical education from U. of Calif. at Santa Barbara. She was employed by Pasadena Recreation dept. for 10 years, and was with the Montclair recreation dept. 3 years. Reminder Sent To Delinquent Taxpayers

DELINQUENT REMINDER NOTICES HAVE BEEN MAILED

Delinquent Reminder Notices have recently been mailed to property owners on parcels upon which taxes were unpaid as of April 10, 1968, the date of the second installment delinquency. The Reminder Notices indicate the amount of taxes, statutory penalties and costs, warned San Bernardino County Tax Collector, G. Leon Gregory, now due for remittances received in the Tax Office on, or before, June 22, 1968.

UNPAID REAL ESTATE TAXES WILL ACCRUE ADDITIONAL PENALTIES

Real Estate Taxes not paid on, or before, June 28, 1968 will have accrued additional penalties and costs, warned San Bernardino County Tax Collector, G. Leon Gregory.

Property on which delinquent taxes have not been paid by that date will be sold to the state, as provided by State Law. Additional penalties of 1% per month and a redemption fee of $1.50 per parcel will then be added.

STATEMENTS OF TAX AMOUNTS DUE MAY BE OBTAINED

If the property taxes have not been paid and a tax bill or delinquent reminder notice has not been received, the property owner should contact the San Bernardino County Tax Collector's Office, 172 West Third St., Hall of Records, San Bernardino, California 92401, telephone, TU9-0111.

Payments can be made by sending the tax statement or Reminder Notice together with check or money order, in exact amount of tax, payable to San Bernardino County Tax Collector, at above address. All unpaid taxes now require the payment of a 6% penalty and a $3.00 cost charge, as provided by State Law.

DELINQUENT REAL ESTATE TAXES

As of June 1, 1968, there are 29,215 parcels of real estate upon which current 1967-68 taxes have not been paid, the Tax Collector stated, and in an amount of $4,506,097. In unpaid taxes, penalties and costs.

Title To Property And Rights That Go With It

By Milton Stone,
President, Upland-
Ontario Board of Realtors
Young people, or older people who have rented housing all of their lives, sometimes would like to own real estate, but know little about the process of acquiring it. Most of us remember the things we are interested in, if deeds, eminent domain, easements, zoning and taxes came up in school when we were not interested, the facts could get fuzzy after completion of test papers.

The most common method of acquiring property is by purchasing it from an owner or through his agent. In California, two types of agents are licensed specifically to represent owners or buyers of real estate. These are real estate brokers and real estate salesmen. A salesman must always work for a broker, the broker being responsible for his salesman's actions.

Licenses are issued by the state after the candidate has passed an examination. A broker, except in rare instances, must have been a salesman for two years before becoming eligible to take the broker's examination. The term Realtor is a registered service mark which may be used only by a broker who is a member of the local real estate board and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, both voluntary organizations.

An agent may also be a licensed attorney. An offer of purchase is most commonly made through use of a document known as a deposit receipt (contract). This contains all the terms and conditions of the purchase of the property.

When the offer to purchase has been accepted and the buyer and seller have both agreed on terms and have signed the deposit receipt, a deed must be signed and acknowledged by the seller and delivered to the buyer and recorded at the office of the county official who keeps such records.

The deed commonly used in transferring real estate in California is the grant deed. It must contain the signature of the grantor, a granting clause ("I hereby grant"), description of the property, and the name of the grantee. It must be delivered and it must be accepted by the grantee. Details of searching records to be sure the grantor has the right to sell are done by a title insurance company. When satisfied that the property can be sold, the title company issues an insurance policy protecting the new buyer against loss because of any cloud on the title that later may come to light.

Details of drawing up the deed, recording, financial arrangements and similar routine are handled by an escrow company.

They have the advantage of being a disinterested third party, holding the transaction in suspension until they make sure all legal requirements are met.

After you are an owner, you should be aware that there are certain public rights that apply to your property. There is the right to tax, to acquire your property for public use through eminent domain, as is done for freeway rights of way. Police power may affect your property, so will the right of the state to promote health and the general welfare.

There may be easements that go with the property. This is a right granted by a previous owner to put a utility line, for instance, over the back of your lot. There is the right of escheat, which means that if there are no legal heirs to your property, it reverts to the government.

There may be a covenant applying to the property, either one you agreed to on buying, or one you may impose on selling. A covenant is an agreement that the property will not be used for certain purposes.

The most common right is that of someone loaning money to you for buying the property to sell it if you default. Such mortgage rights are known as liens. Liens may also be against the property for unpaid taxes or to satisfy judgment by a court.

Zoning restrictions are a special kind of public right, dictating to what use the property may be put. Zoning restrictions are decided by a zoning commission and when they are changed are always subject to public hearing. You can also apply for a variance, which means you want to put it to a use not allowed under the zoning then in effect.

Interpreting the factors that apply to a particular real estate property is the business of a Realtor or other real estate broker. Besides having a day-to-day knowledge of property price trends, he can also guide the buyer and seller through the steps necessary in transferring ownership.

Share Bonus' For Kaiser Employees

A cash payment of $372,602 was shared last week by participants in the Kaiser Steel -- United Steelworkers Long Range Sharing Plan at the company's Fontana, California plant.

The cash payment of $372,602 for the month of April, equivalent to 44¢ per hour worked, will be distributed to 5829 employees. An additional $10,000 of the employees' gains was set aside for the new Hospital and Medical Benefit Plan for Retired Employees.

Also during April, 40 Kaiser Steel employees worked 5,605 man-hours in the company's Employment Reserve, and 38 employees received a Displacement Differential.

The Employment Reserve and the Displacement Differential are employment security provisions of the Long Range Sharing Plan which provide protection against job and income loss as a result of technological or work methods improvements.

The Long Range Sharing Plan -- a cost-saving sharing, rather than a profit-sharing, plan -- measures productivity at the Fontana plant and shares the gains among employees and the company.

July 11, Physical and Emotional Aspects of Marriage, Robert W. Moyle, M.D., Doctor in charge of Obstetrics, San Bernardino County Hospital.

July 18, Married Couple Speaks About Marriage, Mr. and Mrs. F. Keith Varni, San Bernardino.

July 25, The Religious Meaning of Marriage, Rev. Dominic De Pasquale, Assistant Pastor, St. Joan of Arc Church, Victorville and Chaplain, Newman Club, Victor Valley Junior College.

Engaged and married couples are cordially invited to attend the conferences. A certificate is awarded to those who attend all four sessions. This can be substituted for the instructions usually given by the pastor of the bride's parish. Couples who may have attended part of the first series may secure their certificate by attending the "missing" conference during this series. Program includes talk by an expert, coffee break and a question and answer period. Questions are usually written during the coffee break.

Father Neal T. Dolan, San Diego Diocesan Director of Cana, presented certificates to eight married couples who renewed their marriage vows and twenty-nine engaged couples who had completed the First Cana Series Tuesday evening, May 28. Couples were from Bloomington, Colton, Chino, Cucamonga, Highland, Loma Linda, Montclair, Redlands, Rialto, Upland, and Yucaipa.

The Religious Meaning of Marriage was discussed by Father John Potts, Instructor, Aquinas High School, who stressed marriage as a vocation, an election, a convenient between husband and wife and God. He referred to the certificate scroll which began "male and female He created them," noting roles of each, to express love to each other and to find children of their union, symbols of their love and their love of God. He urged the couples to undertake responsible parenthood, to plan ahead socially, physically, economically, morally. Parents themselves make their judgment in family planning.

in the sight of God, according to objective standards and their sense of responsibility to each other. Abstinence is the only perfect means of birth control.

The use of "the pill" to regulate menstrual cycle is a matter to discuss with the physician. A lively question and answer period found frank discussion of problems and advice to communicate with each other before and after marriage; to be sure that both parties are in agreement on their roles, hopes, responsibilities -- "Marriage," he concluded, "is signing over to your partner the exclusive right of your body." It is a change in social and legal status to Mr. and Mrs.

William E. Cozzo, San Bernardino businessman, has been elected president of the 1969 National Orange Show. He succeeds Lloyd Yount, Redlands orange grower whose term ended in April.

Active in directing civic events, Cozzo joined the board of directors for a three year term August 1965. He is vice-president and zone manager of Industrial Asphalt Co., and has resided in San Bernardino for the past 21 years.

The new president is not unfamiliar with show production, having assisted with many service club, civic and political functions. He has averaged 30 master-of-ceremonies tasks a year in the inland empire for over a decade and predicts this election year may top them all.

Cozzo is past president of Allied Construction Industries and San Bernardino Host Lions Club. He served as commander of the United Veterans of the Republic, and is a member of the American Legion Post 14; Knights of Columbus, Elks Club and the Arrowhead Country Club.

The 1969 citrus exposition head will begin his term this month, laying groundwork for the 54th National Orange Show before he departs for a summer trip to the Scandinavian countries with his wife, Joyce, who is principal of Golden Valley Junior High School. They have a son, Chris, who will receive his BA degree from Santa Clara University in June.

Others elected to serve with him on the executive committee are John Van Horn, executive vice-manager of Pure Gold Inc., Redlands, first vice-president; Herbert L. Fischer, San Bernardino nurseryman, second vice-president; Lyman Rich, a member of the board of directors, will serve as treasurer.

Fischer was reelected for a second term on the board of directors. Also reelected for another three years were S. Wesley Break, J. Dale Gentry and Donald Van Leuven. L.J. Gabriel, San Bernardino businessman was elected a new member of the board.

Other members of the board of directors include Yount, Warren E. Freeman, Robert N. Moodey, J.W. Snyder, B. Dade Davis, Howard L. Holcomb, Earl S. Reynolds, Oliver P. Roemer and Carl J. Waelder.

Mrs. Frank Summers of Pomona and Mrs. Charles T. Vath of Alta Loma, tickets; Mrs. John Calvin of Pomona and Mrs. Louis Kayser of Ontario, publicity; Mrs. Royer Fudge and Mrs. Thomas Carnesi, both of Upland, treasurers, and Mrs. Carl Hase Jr., of the Upland League, telephone.

The entire membership of both Leagues assisted in preparation of the invitations for mailing, according to the invitations residents will receive theirs within two weeks; a June 28 mailing date has been set.

An evening of dancing, sociability, partaking of the largest buffet ever set in the Pomona Valley, and viewing the stores, is expected to attract 12,000 persons to the Plaza, the largest air-conditioned mall this side of the Mississippi river. The mall will be brightly decorated and will take on a fiesta atmosphere for the pre-opening festivities.

The Plaza mall shops and major stores will be open for the evening. Store personnel will be available to show and demonstrate merchandise, but sales will not begin until the following Monday's opening.

Proceeds from admissions will be used toward supporting the various philanthropies of the two Leagues. Since its beginning in 1933, Assistance League of Pomona Valley has given financial support, equipment and service to the handicapped children in the Pomona schools, Casa Colina, Children's Home in Ontario, Pomona Valley Community Hospital, David and Margaret Home in La Verne, the Crippled Children's Society, Visiting Nurse Association and the Red Cross Blood Bank.

The Hearing and Speech Center of Assistance League of Pomona Valley was assumed as its permanent project in 1954. At its inception, classes for eight children were conducted at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Pomona. At present, classes for 70 children are held during the school year, plus a summer school for 50 children in the League's own fully-equipped Hearing and Speech Center.

Community services devoted mainly to children dominate the program of Assistance League of Upland. Its chief philanthropy is the Girls' Club of Cucamonga, situated in the Assistance League Center in Cucamonga. Completely financially supported by Assistance League of Upland, it is staffed by two paid people and two League volunteers four afternoons each week. Cooking, crafts, sewing and social behavior highlight the program for more than a hundred girls.

Members of Assistance League of Upland also organize, schedule, staff and help finance the San Antonio Community Hospital Dental Center, with clinics held three mornings each week in headquarters at San Antonio Community Hospital. School children whose families are not financially able to meet dental expenses are cared for at the clinic. Last year, nearly 200 children were seen an average of six visits each.

Assistance League of Upland members also work with the San Bernardino-Riverside County Blood Bank and Santa Claus, Inc. Financial support is given to the Boys' Club in Cucamonga. Two scholarships are given each year, one to a girl and one to a boy graduating from Los Amigos Junior High School in Cucamonga.

The Pomona Valley and Upland Assistance Leagues are among the 44 chapters of National Assistance League.

'Conquistas For Humanity' Plans Fund Raising Fiesta

A young Cucamonga housewife, disturbed at the country's trend towards detachment, violence and discrimination, is the moving force behind "Conquistas for Humanity," a group dedicated to make the world a better place in which to live.

Mrs. Robert Quaintance of Sierra Vista Drive foresees the possibility of achieving a Utopian world in which people will be drawn together by establishing neighborhood band concerts, exchanging views, solving problems, and spreading the word about brotherhood.

The organization's aspirations are very high, and include the establishment of chapters in other communities. "Peace, freedom, equality, humility, religion and education" are its tools. Ramon LaPort, a VISTA worker attached to Operation Contact in Cucamonga who came to the United States four years ago from Puerto Rico, is the group's president.

Its first fund raising event will be a fiesta in July. The community will be invited to join the celebration on a neighborhood basis which will include fun as well as serious discussion about what Conquistas next steps will be. Mrs. Quaintance, 985-5744 will be the contact for information about the organization and methods of forming chapters in other cities.

Richard D. Whitbeck, Air Force

Airman First Class Richard D. Whitbeck, whose wife, Grutrud, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lewis of 603 Fairwood Way, Upland, is on duty at Nakhon Phanom Royal Thai AFB, Thailand.

Airman Whitbeck, a weapons mechanic, is a member of the Pacific Air Forces.

Before his arrival in Thailand, he was assigned to Lowry AFB, Colo.

The airman is a graduate of Chaffey High School, Ontario, Calif.

Upland Kiwanis Visit Museum

UPLAND - Members of the Upland Kiwanis Club will visit the Upland Museum at the meeting of the organization, Tuesday, June 18.

Members will have a box lunch and then tour the museum. Regular meeting time of 12:10 p.m. will be observed.

At last week's meeting Councilman Mike Rossitter presented a colored slide showing of his native England.

A fishing trip is on the agenda for Aug. 10, with July 1 the deadline.

HEADS "PEOPLE FOR PEOPLE" GROUP. Mrs. Robert Quaintance of Cucamonga, organizer of Conquistas for Humanity, displays posters announcing the group's first fund-raising event to be held next month. The community will be invited to attend and meet at a fiesta.

The nation's production of cotton continues to decline. During 1967 the harvest totaled slightly fewer than eight million bales — the lowest figure since 1921.

Aristotle led his pupils in many fields of research and classified the various branches of knowledge as physics, metaphysics, rhetoric, poetic, and logic—names we still use.

Quimby Introduces Legislation To Help Quell Student Riots

Assemblyman John P. Quimby (D-Rialto) has announced that he has co-authored two measures which seek to clarify the Legislature's position regarding the current wave of student riots and insurrections on California campuses.

One measure, a proposed bill by Assemblyman Charles Conrad (R-Sherman Oaks), would cancel a student scholarship to any student who is convicted of taking part in illegal rioting on a campus. The other measure, H.R. 284, by Assemblyman Ray E. Johnson (R-Chico) directs the Regents of the University of California and the Trustees of the California State Colleges to effect the immediate expulsion of any student who alone, or in concert with others, disrupts or interferes with the orderly conduct of classes, sets fire to, or otherwise damages, school property, causes or threatens violence, or breaches the peace or threatens the safety of others by the violation of any law.

Assemblyman Quimby said, "The time has come for the California State Legislature to make a firm definitive statement regarding the wanton destruction and organized rebellions taking place on campuses of this State. I, for one, feel that it is unfair to hold faculty members entirely responsible."

All This And A Hot Spring And An Airstrip As Well

Glen Ivy Hot Spring Spa, Riverside County's only hot springs resort with a private airstrip, celebrates its 48th anniversary this year, but it dates back to the Indians who enjoyed bathing in its tepid healing waters.

Now a modern hotel-restaurant-cocktail lounge facility, the hot springs still exist as its most popular feature, supplying a huge swimming pool, mineral pools, Jacuzzi and even the saunas.

Built in 1920, Glen Ivy, as its known to thousands of persons, many of whom return week after week from as far back as 1923, celebrates its anniversary almost as a historical monument.

In 1881, Capt. James Sayward, a seaman, homesteaded the land and discovered the hot mineral springs. He built an adobe house and lived out his life there.

MINERAL SPRINGS
"If he had asked the Temescal Indians," says resort manager Fred Beam, "he might have learned that the hot mineral springs was their favorite resort. The Temescal used the water for healing purposes."

Beam says that the hot springs is just as popular, but now to a different society, and they come from as far away as Santa Barbara in shiny new cars and single-engine airplanes to soak, swim, bath and bask.

Glen Ivy is a historical monument in consideration of the main hotel building. It was built in 1920. It is stately and dramatic, for it holds a wealth of antiquity combined with modernity.

A huge palm tree grows through the center of the lobby, its 4 ft. trunk rising through the floor and out the roof. Pillars of ancient stone hold up heavy wooden beams, creating an aesthetic characteristic only age imbues.

The fireplace in the lobby really shows the historical value of the hotel. Made of native stone, Temescal Indian grinding stones, found in the area, are inlaid in the fireplace and add a very unusual characteristic.

Yet under Beam's guidance, the interior functions as a modern hotel resort, with a large dining room and color television in the lobby.

Glen Ivy's chief chef is Hal Hazelwood who has won many prizes for his sandwich innovations. One of these sandwiches, called the Wagon Wheel, is a breakfast sandwich, and its ingredients are surprising as well as delicious.

Besides the hot springs - fed swimming pool, there are other resources for exercise at Glen Ivy. Like the horseshoes, badminton court, croquet, shuffleboard, tennis and pingpong.

It also has hiking up a stream - fed canyon and for house guests even picking a few oranges from trees near the hotel.

While the dirt airstrip is a definite asset, it in no way matches the asphalt runway that receives the traffic of the automotive battalions.

On a weekend, Beam, an electrical engineering graduate of the University of Colorado, is hard pressed to find space for his guests.

"I guess," he laughs,

"they heard about our hot springs from the Temescal Indians. They come here for everything from the baths to swimming."

STILL THE SAME
Beam says the hotel has many guests who are golfers and who play at the Mountain View Country Club 18-hole course.

"There's nothing more relaxing," he says, speaking as a golfer, "than 18 holes of golf and then a hot springs bath, sauna and massage."

Glen Ivy was purchased in 1913 and developed into a resort seven years later by a Danish immigrant, Axel Springborg, who operated it until he sold it to Temescal Properties Inc. four years ago.

Springborg's love for the charming old hotel is still with him, for he comes back in the cool of the evening to enjoy a Hazelwood smorgasbord and one of three hot entrees.

The characteristic that hasn't changed much is the price of accommodations at Glen Ivy; it isn't much more than a first-class motel. A new hacienda-type luxury unit has been added, featuring a President's Suite with a fantastic scene of a valley viewed through soaring pines of glass.

Glen Ivy is reached via Corona's Main St. and then Highway 71, and Corona is reached via the San Bernardino Freeway.

It is a great place to let off steam and a great place to soak up a little of it, just as Captain Sayward did in the 1880's and the Temescal Indians did before him, in the water that flows ever so gently from the Glen Ivy hot springs.

Scholarships Awarded to 4-H Students

Sam Hall, Jr., and Kay Sloop, both of Iredell County in North Carolina, and four other 4-H members were selected as highest achievers in 4-H Club Health activities among the more than sixty state winners (some states select two).

Awarded $500 scholarships during the recent 4-H Club Congress were: Hall, of Statesville; Miss Sloop, Mount Ulla; Lin-a Jo Conley, Nutter Fort, West Virginia; Tom Hartje, Oakland, Iowa; Gilbert Landry, Jr., Napoleonville, Louisiana; and Judy Strike, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The youths received their awards from health program sponsor Eli Lilly and Company, Indianapolis, at a banquet attended by fifty-two state winners from over the nation and from Puerto Rico. The Lilly company has sponsored the 4-H health program nationally for twelve years.

Speaker for the banquet was astronaut Captain James Lovell, who is President Johnson's consultant for physical fitness. The Navy pilot was aboard Gemini 7 during its history-making orbital flight of 330 hours, 35 minutes, was command pilot for the Gemini 12 flight, and now is a member of the Apollo moon voyage team.

Japanese shipyards continued their world leadership last year, launching 926 vessels totaling 7,496,576 tons.

It has been estimated that if the Antarctic ice sheet ever melted, the level of the world's oceans would rise about 200 feet.

The highest point on the European continent is Mount Elbrus, in the Caucasus Mountains in the U.S.S.R.

Rice consumption in Louisiana is about 36 pounds per person each year, five times the national level of rice consumption.

Let The Guilty Criminal Know He'll Be Prosecuted, Punished

By J. Edgar Hoover
Director F.B.I.

The story is told of a mythical young knight who rode out to encounter his first fire-breathing dragon. When he spotted the beast, he froze with fear. He closed his eyes and hoped that the monster would go away. He was wrong, of course, and the dragon devoured him.

We have on the loose in our country today a predatory monster called crime. It is growing in size and violence. Its far-reaching forages threaten every city and hamlet in the Nation, and it strikes fear in the hearts and minds of the law-abiding public. It is ripping away the very fiber of our society and our system of government.

The story of alarming crime increases each year is not a new story. It is old and it is true. One appalling aspect is the fact that many people in positions of responsibility continue to deny this truth. They prefer to close their eyes and hope that crime, if ignored, will go away. Here, as with the mythical young knight, this wishful approach is doomed to failure.

Concerted efforts have been made to minimize the seriousness of the crime problem and to explain away the shocking truths behind crime statistics. It is suggested that our population increase is responsible for a corresponding rise in the rate of crime, and that extensive population growth of the crime-prone young age group has not been taken into account in crime figures. Under close examination, as has been shown before, these arguments do not measure up.

For instance, our population increased approximately 10% from 1960 through 1967. During that period, the volume of serious crimes rose 88%. Thus crime outpaced the population growth by almost 9 to 1. The young age group population, 10 to 17 years, climbed 22% from 1960 through 1967. Arrests of persons in this category for all criminal acts increased 72% during the same period.

We hear the claim that improved police reporting methods account for some of the rise in crime and that now citizens are more willing to report to police. These suppositions are weak. Actually, agencies which update their reporting systems are not included in the national trend totals until they have established at least two comparable years under their revised operations. This is done purposely to avoid any paper increase which might result from the change. As to more crime being reported to police, most persons would concur that armed robbery and murder, with isolated exceptions are consistently reported year after year. Consequently, with minor fluctuations, the annual totals for these two crimes should remain fairly constant. Yet, in 1967, armed robbery increased 30%

Let us not forget that crime statistics are based on violations known to police. We know that there are unlawful acts which are not reported by citizens to police agencies. This will always be true. This factor was known to and recognized by the police administrators, social scientists, and experts on law and public administration who authored the Uniform Crime Reporting program in the late 1920's. The concept is not new, and the fact remains that the criminal agencies can only work with those offenses reported to them or detected by them.

The answer to our Nation's crime problem will be found in direct, positive action -- not by waiting and hoping the problem will go away. A good beginning would be to let the guilty criminal know that when he is arrested, he will be promptly prosecuted and substantially punished for his misdeeds. A good time to begin would be NOW.

Highest milk production per cow in the U.S. for 1967 was in California, where the average output was 890 pounds of milk.

The average daily patient census in Veterans Administration hospitals for the past six months is approximately 98,000.

Bonnie and Clyde Liked Their Milk

ONTARIO - Nearly a quarter-mile off Seventh Street Road between Joplin and Duenweg Avenues in Missouri, the notorious Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow were holed up in the early 1930s.

It was there that Ontarian Bill Burns, who was about 19 or 20 at the time, delivered milk to the infamous pair.

"The house, located in a gully, was almost obscured by the surrounding woods," said Burns, who now lives at 4830 Ramona Place.

"Bonnie was seldom seen, but when she was, she always had a stogie in her mouth, wore a man's dirty felt hat and a holster with gun.

"She was short and, I thought, homely. She wore grimy blouses and long, ugly skirts."

Chits Missing

One morning Burns bounced over the uneven dirt road in a model T delivery truck only to find that chits - customarily left as payment for bottled milk - were missing.

He knocked on the door. It was Bonnie who flung the door open, cursed the stunned youth and told him that he'd get paid "if and when" she felt like paying.

Discouraged

"That encounter discouraged my questioning her honesty on future oversights," Burns said with a chuckle. However, when Clyde and his moll abandoned the hideout to evade the law, Burns was only a few chits short.

"I didn't realize who my customers were until I read about them later in the newspaper," Burns said.

A. Tobin Elected CBMWD

Alexander R. Tobin, an attorney living in Upland, handily won the lone contested directorship on the Chino Basin Municipal Water District board over Andy Torta, a realtor and developer.

Carl B. Masingale of Alta Loma, incumbent director and currently chairman of the board, ran unopposed.

Tobin received 5,810 votes to Torta's 3,237 to win the directorship for Division 1 which includes the Upland area.

Masingale, who will be serving his third term representing District 5 which encompasses roughly the area from the national forest on the north to the Chino area on the south and from Fontana on the east to Cucamonga Channel on the west. Population in the division is about 15,000. In Tobin's district there are approximately 32,000.

CBMWD directors are elected for four-year terms. Newly elected directors take office the first of the year.

Not seeking return to office as Division 1 director was Robert Walline of Upland. He will complete his second term at the end of the year.

Grunion Season Reopens For Total Of 16 Nights

Grunion season has re-opened, and starting about 10:06 p.m. Tuesday night, June 11, two-hour spawning runs of the tasty little ocean fish are expected to hit southern California's sandy beaches on a total of 16 nights during June and July.

The Department of Fish and Game's Marine Resources Branch at Terminal Island predicts four separate four-night runs:

June 11-10:06 pm to 12:06 am

June 12-10:54 pm to 12:54 am

June 13-11:48 pm to 1:48 am

June 14- from 42 min. past Friday midnight to 2:42 a.m., Saturday

June 26-9:54 pm to 11:54 pm

June 27-10:30 pm to 12:30 am

June 28-11:06 pm to 1:06 am

June 29- from 48 minutes past Saturday midnight to 1:48 a.m., Sunday.

July 11-10:48 pm to 12:48 am

July 12-11:36 pm to 1:36 am

July 13- from 24 minutes past Saturday midnight to 2:24 a.m. Sunday

July 14- from 18 minutes past Sunday midnight to 3:18 a.m., Monday

July 26-10:18 pm to 12:18 am

July 27-11 pm to 1 am

July 28-11:42 pm to 1:42 am

July 29- from 24 minutes past Monday midnight to 2:42 a.m., Tuesday

The DFG says grunion runs may occur on any sandy beach from Mexico north to Santa Barbara County but there is no way of predicting which beaches they will choose on any given night. The best runs normally occur on the second and third nights of each four-night period.

Anyone 16 or older must have an angling license to take grunion. There is no bag limit, but they may be taken only by hand.

It's Your Country's Flag, Fly It Proudly, June 14

Old Glory, The Star-Spangled Banner, The Stars and Stripes—your country's flag.

Fly it every day, if you wish, but be sure to fly it Friday, June 14. That's Flag Day.

It was on June 14, 1777, that the Continental Congress passed this resolution:

"Resolved, that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

No one knows who designed this flag, or who made the first one. William J. Canby said in 1870 that his grandmother, Betsy Ross, made the first one, but historians doubt it.

The Continental Congress left no record to show why it chose red, white and blue for the flag, but in 1782 the Congress of the Confederation chose these same colors for the newly designed Great Seal of the United States.

The resolution on the seal said red is for hardness and courage, white is for purity and innocence, and blue is for vigilance, perseverance, and justice.

And the flag itself?

"The Stars and Stripes stands for the land, the people, the government, and the ideals of the United States, no matter when or where it is played."

Fly it proudly.

Savings & Loan Firms Weigh Home Furnishings

Possibility that savings and loan institutions may soon extend their activities to cover the home furnishings was voiced today by Paul D. Walker, president of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Walker said the association has joined other Federally chartered savings and loan organizations in urging the government to broaden the lending powers of these financial institutions.

The request came as a result of the recent annual meeting of the Conference of Federal Savings and Loan Associations on Shelter Island near San Diego, attended by Glenn Gunnison and Roy G. Decker, Pomona First Federal Vice Presidents, and their wives.

Delegates there urged the expansion of programs and services, of voting memberships outside California, and the broadening of lending powers.

Employment Next Study For Census

Persons in this area will be asked questions about their employment and unemployment the week of June 17-22 by Census Bureau interviewers, Director Leonard C. Isley of the Bureau's regional office in Los Angeles announced.

The questions are part of the Bureau's monthly population survey taken simultaneously throughout the Nation to gather up-to-date information about the U.S. population. The Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics uses these data principally to evaluate the changes in the national job picture.

Households to be interviewed here are part of a scientifically selected national sample. Their identity is confidential, and the facts obtained in the survey will be used only for statistical purposes.

Some Welfare Recipients Losing Desire To Work

Jim Christensen, candidate for the GOP nomination in the 72nd Assembly District, said today that "creative new ideas must be a part of any really significant changes in California's public welfare policies". Christensen's comments came in response to questions at a reception Tuesday night in Highland.

Christensen said that we should think even more seriously about welfare costs in light of the recent Federal Court decisions that nullified California's residency requirements for public assistance applicants.

"Welfare must be brought under control and it's recipients must be given realistic incentive and motivation to become self-supporting and productive citizens," Christensen said. "We must focus our attention on training and education and make these programs mandatory. Social workers should strive to assure training of welfare recipients for available job opportunities, rather than spend their work days peddling social theories, filling out reports and shuffling volumes of

"I would recommend a reasonable 'skill pool' program to re-locate welfare recipients who have been trained in new skills at public expense if job opportunities don't exist in their areas. Once a worker is trained we must make sure that he enters the job market even if he must move his residence to do so," Christensen added.

"All to often our job training programs have failed because there was not the incentive for the un-employed to take the necessary interest in the training provided. I would suggest welfare recipients retain their welfare payments until they reach a specified level of income on their newly obtained job. Their welfare payments would then be gradually reduced as their productive income rises. This program would encourage a man who really wants to work to take a job while keeping the family's standard of living at an acceptable level," Christensen continued.

"We must recognize the fact that many people who have been on welfare several years probably have lost the desire to seek work on their own," Christensen continued.

"Industries which participate in good and valid job training programs for welfare recipients should be given tax credits as an incentive. In short," Christensen concluded, "every effort should be immediately made to carry out the primary role of any successful welfare program - getting the un-trained person trained and in the productive job market," Christensen concluded.

Keeping Children Occupied Indoors

When you go to the dime store, buy a package of yellow scratch paper and a pair of blunt scissors just sharp enough to cut paper folded three or four times. Cut the paper into squares and lay them away until such time as the children are confined indoors. Then give each child a square and tell him to cut it several times. When it is unfolded he will be amused to see the design he has made. Children thus occupied can be happy for hours.

Home Health Aides Course Announced By Adult School

A special vocational training course (to answer the need for certified home health aides) will be conducted this summer by the Pomona adult school in cooperation with the visiting nurses association.

The local course has won the approval of the State of California - Health and Welfare Agency, department of health. Successful graduates of the course will be eligible for certification by that state agency.

A home health aide is trained to provide personal care of individuals ill in their homes, and for the chronically ill or aged. Employment is by such agencies as the visiting nurses association which implement such government sponsored programs as medicare which are expanding beyond the numbers of trained personnel available.

Under the direction of professional nurses, home health aides assist in preserving safe and health home environments and provides personal services directed toward maintaining adequate nutrition and personal cleanliness. Beginning salaries for aides, who often may choose full-time or part-time employment, are in the vicinity of $2.13 per hour and 10¢ a mile mileage allowances are granted whenever excess travel is necessary. Full-time employees (8 hrs. a day) receive $333, a month plus a 10¢ mileage.

Instructing the course will be Mrs. Claudia Spencer, P.H.N. The class will begin July 1 and continue through August 23, meeting Monday Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 8:00 to 11:00 a.m.

Registration is currently in progress at the adult school office located at 800 S. Garey. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday thru Friday and 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. Monday thru Thursday.

Rope As A Securing Device Being Considered By CHP

The California Highway Patrol has taken preliminary steps toward adoption of liberalized regulations affecting rope used in securing truck loads of lumber and lumber products; empty wooden boxes; baled paper, cotton and jute; and baled hay.

Copies of the proposed new regulations are being sent to the affected industries and interested parties. A public hearing for those affecting lumber and lumber products will be held in Sacramento on July 10, 1968, while hearings on the other regulations will be set at a later date.

According to the Patrol, the proposed regulations will allow the use of synthetic rope on the specified truck loads if it has been certified as meeting specifications required by the Highway Patrol regulations.

The certified synthetic rope will be exclusively identified by an international orange color marker in each strand of the rope, and an internal marker for identification of the manufacturer. Such a marking will be an indication to the buyer that the rope has been tested, and that the manufacturer certifies that it meets all specifications required under the California regulations.

Affected members of the trucking industry and the specific industries listed are invited to submit their comments to the California Highway Patrol, Administrative Regulations Section, Post Office Box 898, Sacramento 95804.

If no adverse comment is received either by mail or at the public hearings, which will be held in the California Department of Motor Vehicles building at 2415 First Ave., the new regulations can be expected to go into effect as soon as practicable after the hearings.

JERRY PETTIS

S.B. Demos Pick Ballard in 33rd

San Bernardino Mayor Al C. Ballard has won the approval of the Democratic party to run for Congress in the 33rd District.

Final unofficial figures show that Ballard has won a decisive victory over John E. Husing. Ballard drew 37,748 votes compared with 27,643 for Husing.

Republican incumbent Jerry Pettis, running unopposed for his second term, received 43,515 votes.

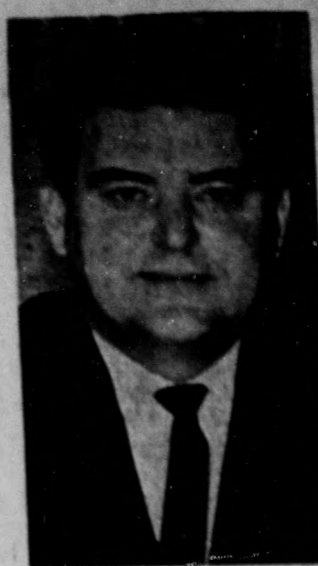

The general election in November between Ballard, 46, and Pettis, a 42-year-old former Loma Linda professor, will determine who will represent almost all of San Bernardino County.

The 33rd District has a total of 102,265 registered Democrats and 87,681 Republicans.

Pettis considers one of his main jobs is to help find jobs and new industries for his district. He has been a leader of the 59 new Republican congressmen who were elected in 1966.

Ballard considers also lack of industry and the high unemployment rate in San Bernardino County as his two areas of major concern.

IRS Warns Of Another Payment

Individual taxpayers who filed declarations of estimated Federal income tax returns must pay the second quarter installment of tax due on their 1968 estimate by Monday, June 17, (June 15 falls on Saturday this year).

Taxpayers who first met the requirements for filing a declaration of estimated tax after April 1, are required to file their declarations of estimated tax returns for 1968 on Form 1040-ES by June 17 and pay at least one-third of the estimated tax by that date.

F.S. Schmidt, District Director of Internal Revenue for Southern California said that taxpayers whose anticipated income during 1968 has changed may be required to file an amended declaration of estimated tax. A blank form for use as an amended declaration is provided on the notice for an installment of estimated tax, Mr. Schmidt said. Form 1040-ES also may be obtained from your District Director, Internal Revenue Service.

Job Horizons Expand for College Women

Today's college woman can choose from a wider range of career possibilities than was true for any previous generation, a newly released Department of Labor publication reports.

"Job Horizons for College Women" describes 32 career fields. Many of them provide opportunities in relatively new fields for college women.

The booklet points out that continued shortages of professional workers are projected, not only in the traditional fields of nursing and teaching, but also in science, engineering, mathematics, and medicine, among others. Because of the shortages, longstanding barriers to women's advancement in professional and technical occupations are diminishing.

A long-time trend toward broadening women's occupational opportunities in the professions is reported.

Mexico's 1500-mile Gulf Coast highway, from the U.S. border city of Matamoros to the Caribbean, is being shortened by about 190 miles, the Mexican National Tourist Council reports. Old Fashioned 'Fourth' At Angel's Haven Anaheim Stadium Manager, Tom Liegler, Monday set a "time bomb" scheduled to explode over the Angel Stadium on the Fourth of July.

Liegler accepted from producer Tommy Walker an advance rental payment of $5,000 to secure the use of the stadium for Orange County's "THIRD ANNUAL OLD FASHIONED INDEPENDENCE DAY SPECTACULAR."

Liegler said Walker's presentation of fireworks and "Pursuit of Freedom" pageant was the most spectacular he had ever seen. "No other Fourth of July show comes close to the one staged by Tommy Walker," Liegler said. "The intricate fireworks sets and pageant props are unmatched anywhere in Southern California."

The fireworks display will be the most elaborate presented to an audience in the Southland, with gigantic colored rockets depicting the greatest scenes from our country's history, including land, air and sea battles. Admission will be

Top Architects' Work Displayed At Claremont Savings In June

Outstanding Claremont architects and the Inland Empire chapter of the American Institute of Architects are being featured during June at Claremont Savings, Robert G. Martens, vice president and manager of the association announced, (Wednesday, June 5).

Allen & Rossi Due July 1-2 At Melodyland

Melodyland Theatre has scored another triumph in the booking of Allen and Rossi, two of television's funniest comedians, for a special two night engagement in the Anaheim showhouse on Monday and Tuesday evenings, July 1 and 2.

The comedy team, who made the phrase "Hello dere," a family byword, and proceeded to fracture video audiences from coast to coast with the maddest antics ever seen on the home screens, will be making their first Orange County appearance when they play Melodyland.

Special guest stars on the show will be The Checkmates, Ltd. one of the hottest of the singing-instrumental groups. Mail orders for this special two-night attraction are now being accepted at the Melodyland Theatre boxoffice.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
The prayer of faith will save the sick. (James 5:15)
When we know of someone or hear of someone with a healing need, there is a way in which we can be of real and definite help. This is through our prayers. It is an act of caring to pray for another. We do so because we are interested in him, because we want to see him well again, because we want to see him free from bodily distress of any kind.

with representative work on display include the offices of William Abbott, Jackson Foster Rhodes, Everett L. Tozier, Rufus L. Turner, S. David Underwood, Richard K. Weimer and Criley and McDowell.

The Inland Empire display is from their permanent exhibition. It includes works from noted architects from Claremont south east to the California border.

Included in the huge display are model buildings and photographs and renderings of houses, buildings and churches.

"Never before has America been building so fast and so much," said Martens. "And in the Claremont area we have some of America's finest architects, men with deep perception into the needs of a vitally growing America. We are indeed proud to have such an exhibition in our lobby."

The display, slated to last during the month of June, is part of a continuing series of educational and cultural displays at Claremont Savings.

Claremont Savings is located at 400 North Indian Hill Blvd., Claremont, Calif.

Proof Of Age Important For Social Security Benefits

By: Hugh B. Chapman,
Pomona District Manager
Social Security Administration.

The one problem we encounter most frequently in processing a claim for social security retirement or survivors benefits is that of establishing the date of birth of the claimant.

A person's age, or date of birth, is very important. First, except for the young mother or widow who has minor children in her care, the date of birth determines whether or not the individual has reached "retirement age." Secondly, for retired workers, it establishes the number of work credits under social security which are needed to qualify for benefits. Finally, a person's date of birth helps determine the amount of his monthly social security benefit.

Because of the importance of a person's date of birth, we have always required evidence to substantiate a claimant's statement that he was born a certain month, day, and year. In the past, we required a person to submit "convincing evidence," but there have been some changes made in proof of age requirements in the last two years. We now use a "best evidence" rule.

BIRTH CERTIFICATE
We request each person applying for benefits to submit an original birth certificate or a baptismal certificate recorded before age 5. If neither of these is available, we try to get the best evidence possible so that we can make a date of birth determination.

Because many of the people who apply for social security benefits were not baptized in infancy and were born in a state that did not require the recording of births, we frequently must resort to the "best evidence" rule. When this is necessary, we help the person to get evidence established as early in his life as possible. This can be an early school record, a census record, an old insurance policy, or many other documents. Only when we are convinced that we have evidence which establishes the correct date of birth and that the claimant will be paid the right benefit amount can we start making payments.

So that this rule doesn't appear too strict or arbitrary, let's take an example that shows how it usually works to a person's advantage.

Recently, a woman applied for social security benefits and said that she was born in February, 1906. Our records agreed with this. Under our old rule, we could have started her benefit checks. Under our new rule, however, we needed "best evidence" because she had not been baptized in infancy and her birth had not been recorded. She brought in her marriage license issued in 1925 which showed she was born in 1907. This was the same year of birth indicated by the birth certificates of her two children. We assisted her in writing for school records and a census record. The earliest school record we were

air travel

Baggage Checks

Misplaced luggage at air terminals can mar either the start or finish of memorable jet-flight vacations—and in most cases, this can be avoided.

Olympic Airways, the Greek flag line which serves Europe, the Middle East, and Africa (beginning this summer) has come up with three valuable suggestions for keeping track of luggage being picked up from all forms of public transportation.

First, a passenger should put personal identification tags or travel stickers on all bags. The most common cause of loss is the "look-alike" bag.

Second, place a personal card or identification sticker inside each piece of luggage to insure quick return if lost or mistakenly picked up by someone else.

Third, a passenger should remove all old destination tags from his bags to avoid confusion as to the current destination.

able to get was recorded in 1911 and showed that she was born in February, 1903. This was confirmed by the 1920 census.

Because of our new rules, we are now paying this woman a full retirement benefit of $129.50 a month instead of a reduced benefit of $102 a month, and she also qualifies for medicare.

As I stated earlier, proof of age is a problem and can cause a delay in getting payment started. If you are planning to apply for social security benefits, come into our office two or three months ahead of time and bring with you any documents you have which show your age or date of birth. If we need more or older evidence, we will help you to get it. If you have nothing which shows your date of birth, we will help you get the best evidence.

If you have any questions about your social security, please write or phone us. Our telephone number is 986-2239 and our address is 445 East Holt Avenue. We are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and on Monday from 8:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Bee Swarms Mean Honey For San Dimas Hobbyist

By JOSEPH H. FIRMAN
P-B Staff Writer

SAN DIMAS — Paul Zug has two dogs, five tortoises, several pheasants, and 175,000 bees.

The stinger count is not precise, but Zug estimates he has about 5,000 bees in each of the 35 hives near his home at 231 Woodland Oaks Dr. He works in Irwindale and keeps bees as more or less of a hobby, selling honey in jars and in combs to make expenses.

Bees are swarming (flying in clusters) in search of new homes now, and Zug, as an oft-stung bee handler, had some words of advice for bee-curious valley residents.

'Leave 'Em Alone'

"Leave bees alone and they'll leave you alone," he said. "They're nothing to play with for someone that doesn't know. They can smell fear like a dog. You go out there afraid, and they're going to sting you sure as the world."

Many people, finding bees swarming in their eaves, garage rafters, or trees, do all the wrong things. Stir them up with a stick and they just get angry, Zug says. Squirt a hose on them and they get mad as a hornet.

And don't bang pots and pans to frighten them away. That's how beekeepers call their swarms, and it will bring the bees right down to the source of the sound.

Many people have been hospitalized from bee stings, and people who are allergic have even been killed. Zug's wife, Gladys, was in the hospital for a week after being stung.

They Spread Pollen

Zug, who raised bees commercially back in the '30s (until honey dropped to four cents a pound), said that bees, in addition to providing honey, pollinate fields and orchards while gathering nectar, a service eagerly sought by farmers and ranchers.

He keeps his hives in San Dimas for orange-flavored honey during the citrus "honeyflow" (blooming), then moves them to Jack Rabbit Pass in Riverside County for black sage and wild buckwheat. In the winter he takes the bees to the desert where they gather honey from manzanita and wild flowers.

Zug and his nephew, Allen Shellenbarger, are partners in the Allen & Paul Honey Co. They remove the honey from the combs with an extractor, a large kettle-like centrifugal force machine.

Scouts Direct Swarms

Bees swarm when the hive gets overcrowded, Zug said. (The queen bee lays twice her weight in eggs each day.) Then scouts are sent out to find a new home, and this is when swarms are seen and heard.

"They look like a big cloud going over," Mrs. Zug said, "and they sound like a far-off buzz saw."

The bees are only interested in finding a new home to store their honey and in protecting their queen, Zug says. They're not interested in stinging. (A bee dies when it stings.)

Zug said that anyone who has an unwanted swarm of bees on his property can call him at 599-3308 to come and get them. Or they can call the County Agriculture Commission, NA 9-4171, and names of bee men will be provided.

"by the way," Zug said with a twinkle. "The county bee inspector is allergic to bees."

Exploratory drilling for oil and gas in the United States continued a 10-year decline in 1967, according to Oil Facts, Preliminary reports indicate that about 8,600 exploratory wells were drilled in this country last year—a drop of more than 40 per cent since 1957. Oil Facts says industry leaders regard the continuing decline as ominous because petroleum demand is rising rapidly.

Average antiknock ratings of gasoline sold in the United States are at record high levels and still rising, according to Oil Facts.

The publication notes that in spite of the improvement in octane ratings and other quality standards over the years, today's gasoline prices—before taxes—are lower than those of the early 1920's.

"Little Hoover Commission" Plan

A concerted effort to stem the tide toward more bureaucracy in state government is underway in the state Legislature on a non-partisan basis.

Two of my colleagues, one a Democrat, the other a Republican, have authored measures which would combine six existing boards in the department of professional and vocational standards. This department licenses and regulates some 800,000 persons in a variety of fields in California.

Both legislators are members of the California state government and economy commission, more commonly known as the "Little Hoover Commission", and introduced the legislation as a result of recommendations of that commission.

The commission's report has been somewhat critical of present operations of the P & V standards agency. It said the licensing boards should "exist only for the protection and service of the public and not for the purpose of regulating industries as a deterrent to competition."

Actually, the legislative package would combine six existing boards into three and eliminate two others. As an example, the structural pest control board would be merged with the contractors license board; the funeral directors and embalmers board would be combined with the cemetery board; and the board of social work examiners would be abolished, to be replaced by a social worker and marriage counselor qualifications board.

The proposed changes are not without controversy, however. While the two legislators are hoping to streamline the P & V standards operation by reducing the number of boards, other legislators have been moving in the opposite direction, although their success is uncertain. Already, legislation has been introduced to set up several dozen new boards and commissions. These include those to regulate carnival amusement rides, janitorial maintenance contractors, interior designers, vocational educators, astrologers, auto repair services, geologists, and transplanting of vital organs.

The two legislative members of the "Little Hoover Commission" say their legislation also calls for elimination of the yacht and ship brokers commission, transferring its functions to the department of harbors and watercraft. They would also abolish the certified shorthand reporters board and move its functions to the judicial council of the state.

The legislative authors also seek reforms by setting up a division of license examiners within the P & V standards, to provide central testing services for all boards. And still another would require each board to issue, without examination, a license or certificate to engage in that profession, providing such license in the other state was substantially the equivalent of California requirements.

And finally, the measure would direct the governor to appoint an additional public member to each board, although most boards already have one member not connected with the business or profession.

This effort to consolidate may turn out to be another sample of Don Quixote battling the windmills, but it does, nevertheless, represent an effort to make our state government more functional, and it could save the taxpayers some money in the end.

The Veterans Administration is the third largest agency in terms of budget and personnel. Defense is first in both; Health, Education and Welfare is second in budget, and Post Office is second in personnel.

About $1 million in undeliverable checks is returned to the Veterans Administration each year.

A Focus On Health

The focus of international public health in 1968 is on the World Health Organization, one member of the United Nations family of specialized agencies. For, this is its 20th Anniversary Year.

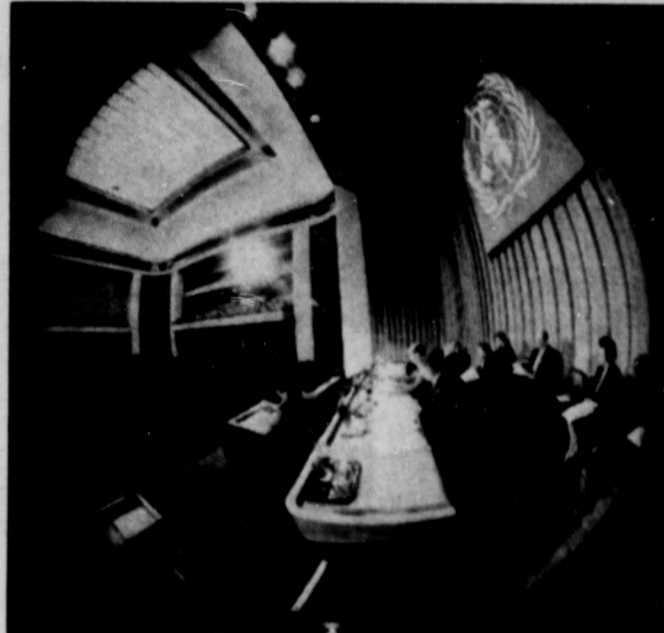

WHO's first year of life in 1948 saw a modest $5 million budget finance campaigns, waged generally then against age-old scourges as malaria, smallpox, and urban yellow fever.

Today, that figure is up tenfold, to more than $55 million. And projects range over health's full spectrum -- from air pollution to zoonoses, the diseases transmitted between animal and man; and from ancient to modern ills.

Moreover, with some 30,000 public health workers thus far the recipients of fellowships, education and training in the skills national health services need are major programs.

WHO operates world-wide programs through six regional offices, doing so in the Western Hemisphere through the Pan American Sanitary Bureau, headquartered in Washington, D.C.

ANNIVERSARY SALE AWARDS INCLUDE HAWAII VACATION

An eight-day vacation in Hawaii for two will be awarded some lucky couple during Angels Home Improvement Center's month-long 18th Anniversary sale which extends through June, 1968.

All Angels stores will be open as usual Memorial Day, May 30 with a record breaking crowd of week-end shoppers expected to take advantage of special birthday prices.

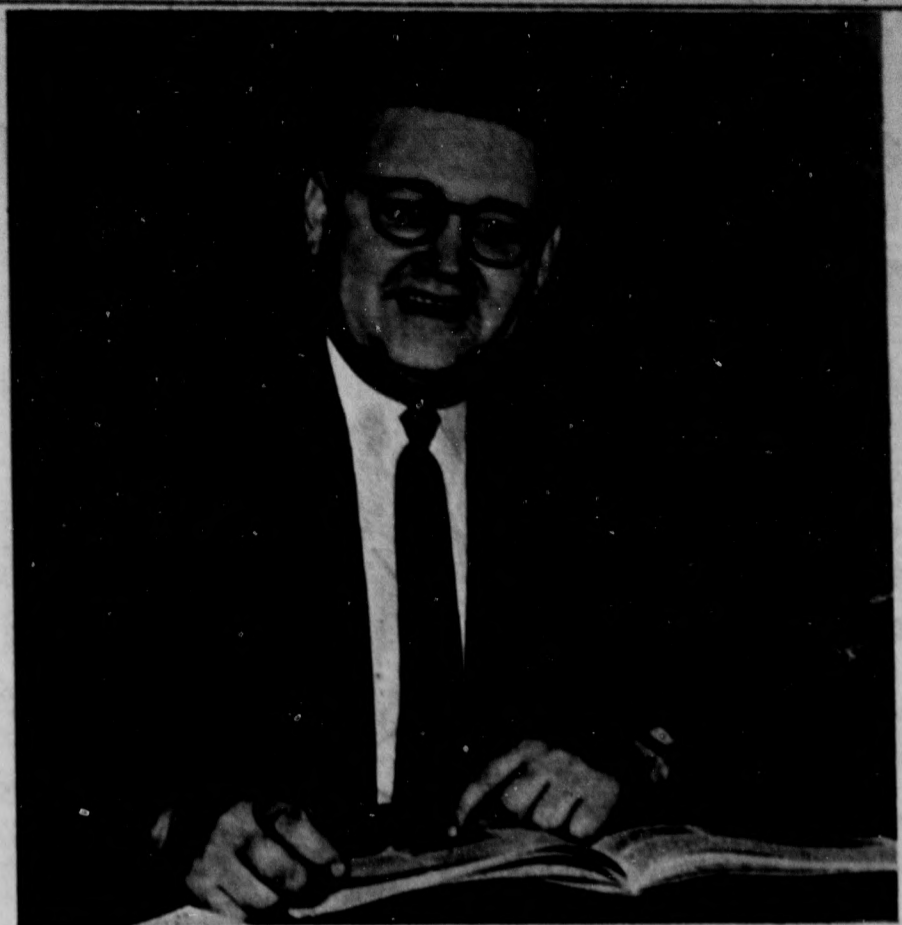

Other couples will win vacation trips to Las Vegas, with winners announced every week. Hundreds of other valuable merchandise awards will be given away during the month-long sale. Registration tickets are available in every Angels location and no purchase is necessary.

Hundreds of items especially marked down for this annual event go on sale celebrating Angels birthday. Angels import division has been ordering merchandise all year from all over the world to be on hand for this event. Special shipments of plywood, lumber and pre-finished paneling are arriving daily from Angels mills to make the current inventory the largest on the West Coast, all marked down for the anniversary.

Angels General Manager Sid Kline explains that his company is able to sell at such drastically reduced prices, "because Angels is actually a wholesale operation selling at retail to the public."

Through control of our own mills, import division, and volume purchasing, we have actually eliminated the middleman and pass the savings on to the consumer."

Cong. Lipscomb Concerned Over Use Of Marijuana

Congressman Glen Lipscomb (24th District) says that the use of marijuana and other drugs by members of the Armed Forces poses a problem of increasing concern. He disclosed that special steps are being taken by the Department of Defense in Vietnam and elsewhere to counteract drug abuse.

Lipscomb said that statistics indicate a rise in drug use since 1965. Defense figures, he said, reflect that worldwide about 2 military individuals per 1,000 were involved in investigations for marijuana violation in 1967. The rate of marijuana violations is higher than other drugs. The statistics do show according to the Defense Department, that there is virtually no addiction to the hard narcotics and the Department also states: "... we are confident that the suggestion that 50 per cent of the Marines in Vietnam, or any of our service people wherever stationed, use marijuana regularly is a gross exaggeration."

Congressman Lipscomb said that because of the concern about the illegal and improper use of drugs by the armed forces, the Department of Defense has put into effect a worldwide directive requiring a comprehensive program of education and enforcement on drug abuse. All military services have implemented the directive.

In the Navy, for example, instructions to all ships and stations emphasize the illegality of marijuana, the criminal and administrative sanctions that could result for those detected using marijuana or having it in their possession, and also its psychological and physiological effects. Navy commanders are instructed to conduct a vigorous program to counter illegal experimentation and use of marijuana, narcotics and dangerous drugs through widespread publicity and instruction, tightening of procedures to prevent smuggling and illicit traffic and mailing of drugs, placing areas or establishments "off-limits" where drugs are determined to be available, and on a case-by-case basis taking strict disciplinary action to include trials by court-martial or administrative elimination from the service.

The problem of marijuana in Vietnam is of special concern, Lipscomb said. Marijuana will grow almost anywhere in Vietnam and can be easily converted into cigarettes which produce a profit to those peddling them. This condition exists even though the use, possession and sale of marijuana is a crime under Vietnamese law. Our services are working with Vietnamese authorities but eliminating illicit traffic has been a thorny problem. To combat the potential danger of use of drugs among United States personnel in Vietnam the following steps are being taken there:

"1. Special marijuana/narcotics investigation teams have been established at selected field offices to investigate and ferret out sources of supply and to apprehend offenders. Special teams are also available to instruct commanders and troops in identification and detection of marijuana."

"2. Orientation classes are being conducted for all new arrivals to stress the moral, medical, social, and legal penalties associated with the possession or use of marijuana."

"3. Command chaplains are preparing lesson plans that will integrate information on marijuana in the character guidance program."

"4. A continuing program of education, using all informational media available, stresses the harmful effects of marijuana and the penalties involved for conviction of marijuana violations."

"5. Joint investigative squads of Vietnamese police and United States service agents are being used to investigate, define and eliminate the use of marijuana."

"6. A new Criminal Investigation Division (CID) laboratory has been established in Vietnam. This laboratory will have the capability of analyzing suspected substances for the presence of marijuana. Experts on the laboratory staff are available to testify at court-martial trials, thus increasing the certainty of conviction for offenders and enhancing the deterrent effects of prosecutions."

In support of the Defense Department's overall educational program a reference handbook for commanders, entitled

"Drug Abuse: Game Without Winners," has been developed and soon will be distributed. A drug abuse pamphlet is soon to be distributed to each serviceman. Further publicity about the drug problem and its dangers is underway in the Stars & Stripes newspapers, press releases, in films, and armed forces radio and television panel discussion shows.

Congressman Lipscomb asserted: "The rising incidence of drug use is a problem of serious concern. It is always a danger to the user but in the military services a drug abuser also represents a potential danger to the security of many others with whom he serves. It is encouraging to see the aggressive steps that have been taken by the Defense Department to solve this problem. Proper carrying out of the drug abuse program certainly should result in decreasing the use of marijuana and other drugs in the armed forces."

CDE Listing Job Openings

The California Department of Employment, 150 E. Arrow Highway, is currently screening applicants for referral to four year apprenticeship programs in the fields of electronic technician, machinist, and tool and die maker for General Dynamics, Pomona.

To be eligible a person must be between the ages of 18 and 31; must be a high school graduate, or have the G.E.D. equivalent; must pass pre-employment tests, and the company physical examination at the time of employment.

In addition, the candidate should have a real desire to become a journeyman worker in his chosen field. During the time that the apprentice is employed, he must also take units of instruction on his own time to meet the conditions as set forth by the apprenticeship agreement. These courses will be taken at Mt. San Antonio College.

Applicants who are currently employed by General Dynamics and who are interested in the apprenticeship program can make application at the company employment office.

May Building Sets Record

Pomona had the best building permit month in its history while the 31 cities served by the Los Angeles County engineer did better than the last two Mays, officials report.

Permits for the General Telephone Co. complex in south Pomona comprised the bulk of the $5,298,064 record month.

For the 31 cities and unincorporated areas served by the county, the figure for May was $44,657,130. This compared with $31.7 million in May 1967 and $35.6 million in May 1966.

Building in the private rather than the public sector swelled the county figure, John Lambie, the county engineer, reported. A 234-unit apartment project worth $2.6 million, under construction in Calabasas, was singled out by Lambie as contributing substantially to the total. It swelled that community's monthly total to $8.7 million.

Other leaders were Newhall with $5.5 million, Cerritos with $4.8 million and Industry, San Dimas and the unincorporated areas around La Puente, Lennox and Lomita with more than $1 million each.

The unincorporated area around La Puente registered $1,183,082 worth of permits. This compared with $1,496,562 last May.

Around San Dimas the total was $853,679. Last May it was $1,963,522.

Totals by cities (May 1967 in parentheses) were: Claremont, $334,935 ($27,090); Industry, $1,152,600 ($1,151,368); La Puente, $66,434 (no comparison); La Verne, $817,535 ($46,275); San Dimas, $1,588,478 ($30,740); Walnut, $8,580 ($496,900).

Permits of at least $5,000 issued in Pomona included: Automatic Electric Co., warehouse and office building, 2850 S. Towne Ave., $805,937; General Telephone Co., warehouse and office, 2849 Ficus St., $3,056,400; General Telephone Co., paint and body shop, garage and office, 2888 Ficus, $664,000; General Cable Corp., cable cutting room and office, 2840 Ficus, $440,079; Historical Society of Pomona Valley, general remodeling and alterations, 401 E. 3rd St., $5,000; General Telephone Co., remodel office; fuel island and vehicle wash, 675 Bonita Ave., $57,000;

Edson-Hallock architecture, ceiling and partitions, 1025 W. 2nd St., $5,000; Woodland Producers, warehouse addition, 1480 E. Grand Ave., $25,000; J. A. Malley, medical building, 1904 N. Orange Grove Ave., $37,000; Armstrong and Son, utility building, 1792 Benedict Way, $6,000; Mobil Oil Corp., demolish loading rack and build new one, 160 N. San Antonio Ave., $5,000; Sidney Kline, addition to retail store, 655 N. Mills Ave., $35,000; Don Clark, brake shop, 404 S. Towne Ave., $15,000.

Nancy Wilson Due June 11 At Carousel

Singer Nancy Wilson and drummer Buddy Rich take over the Carousel Theatre for six days beginning Tuesday, June 11, following "Les Ballets Africains," which closed Sunday.

Rich, lively, out-spoken and bright as a new penny, is a veteran musician who goes back to the halcyon days when the Big Bands were in full flower. Rich played with most of the top name band leaders and their orchestras in those days.

Most of the Big Bands went out with the advent of television and Rich, refusing to fade into oblivion, then decided to climb back up.

Forming his own band, he booked himself on all the leading network TV shows, into auditoriums, theaters and even into fairs all over the land. Additionally, he made a basket-full of records.

Today, Buddy fronts his own Big Band and is gaining in popularity each week. Considered one of the nation's great drummers, he is well-known not only in the U.S. but abroad.

After Nancy and Buddy bow out of the Carousel, The King Family comes in, playing the West Covina round theatre June 18-23.

Awards Presented Writers Works

The Writers Workshop attended a regular weekly meeting highlighted with a dinner and a presentation of awards.

"We have been working hard at writing for one year," President and organizer Mickie Dooley said. "And now it is time to mark our anniversary with something special."

In the past year the Workshop has met regularly on Monday evenings and sponsored several guest lecturers to the Pomona Valley.

After dinner Mrs. Dooley presented awards to the outstanding writers of the year which included, Eleanor Cash for "Mr. Purry Things," Elaine Dalton for "The Legend of Blue Willow," Mary Morris for "Over that Hill of Chino," Ladene Cornell for "Carroc," Rita McCammon for "Grave Yard Mystery," John D. Olson for "Search for Life," and Rose Schenkel for "Why Women Fall in Politics of Pomona."

Suzanne Torres - Rio-seco, Claremont for "Crime on X Street," Robert Barlow, LaVerne, for "Tale of the Pygmy" and Henry McCleery, Diamond Bar, for "Satire," Lenore Betker, Montclair, "Last Raid."

MAIL SERVICE—"The postal rate increase leaves one major gap in its logic as far as the public is concerned," said Rep. Edward Derwinski (R-Ill.), "and that is there will not be any direct or even indirect improvement in the mail service as a result of the rate increase which the Administration is imposing on the public. It seems to me completely inconsistent to tax the public with an increase in postal rates without making a major attempt to improve the service."

TIME TO GROW UP—"The time has come," says Rep. James Haley (D-Fla.), when we, conservatives and liberals together, must face our fiscal problems in a realistic manner. The Congress and the Administration must seek and find ways to close the deficit and this will require a reduction in federal spending. The people, the taxpayers, also must decide what they can afford in federal programs. It is time now—more than ever before—when we need men and women in the Congress who have some maturity in handling money."

J A Speakers Are Available

Both adult and teenage speakers are available for Junior Achievement presentations throughout southern California communities. It was announced by James E. Kenney, vice president and general manager, Los Angeles Central Area, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and vice president of the board of directors of Junior Achievement.

The speakers will appear before interested civic, service and social groups, as well as management clubs, to discuss their business experiences in the Junior Achievement program.

JA is an organization that acquaints high school teenagers with the principles of America's free enterprise system by allowing them to organize and operate their own corporations under the guidance of volunteer adult advisers from prominent local firms. In the 1967-1968 southern California program, 193 JA companies were operated by 3,900 teenagers from the counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, Ventura and San Bernardino.

Groups interested in obtaining a Junior Achievement presentation for their organization should contact Al Halpern, manager of public relations for Junior Achievement in southern California, at Post Office Box 125, Burbank, 91503, or phone (213) 849-6011.

Hypnotist Due At Carousel

Hip Hypnotist Pat Collins is due back at the Carousel Theatre for a two-day stand, June 28 and 29.

In her first appearance at the West Covina roundhouse theatre back in November of '67, Pat attracted so many cash customers that producers Sammy Lewis and Danny Dare decided to sign her for a return engagement. Pat will do three performances; one on June 28 at 8:30 p.m., and two on June 29, at 6:30 and 9:30 p.m.

What they do while under her influence is what makes her act so uproariously funny.

All tickets for Pat's three performances are now on sale at the Carousel box office and all Southland agencies. Seats are priced at $2.00, $3.00 and $4.00.

Heart Branch Outstanding

The East San Gabriel Valley Branch of the Los Angeles County Heart Association has been named "outstanding branch of the year."

The Valley Branch office, 237 W. Eighth St. Pomona, was honored at this week's annual meeting of the Heart Association at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles.

One of eight association branches throughout the county, the East San Gabriel Valley office serves dozens of communities.

An association spokesman said the award was based on careful consideration of the branch's current programs, pilot programs and fund raising accomplishments during the past year.

Accepting the award was Pomona physician Dr. Paul A. Frederick, branch cabinet chairman.

JOHN MARKLEY — ANGELS MANAGER

POMONA ANGELS EXPANDS MERCHANDISING AREA

Plans for a new $100,000 addition to Angels Home Improvement Center building in Pomona were announced this week by John Markley, local manager for the discount building and hardware chain retailer.

The new addition will add approximately 50% in area to the present Angels facilities in Pomona and will make the local store, one of the largest on the West Coast in area, as well as volume, Markley explained.

The new addition in necessary because of the tremendous increase in volume recorded at the Pomona location during the past year, and also to make room for new items and lines recently added to make the store a complete one-stop shopping center.

The 27-year old manager took over operation of Pomona Angels last August and under his direction the local store has become one of California's largest building supply retailers.

Among the innovations added by Markley at Pomona has been a complete new sporting goods department, the largest in Pomona Valley.

Work is also under way redesigning the existing parking facilities to increase the number of cars handled and to make shopping more convenient at Angels Pomona.

Markley has a background of over 12 years in retailing and building supply fields. He is a graduate of Downey Union High School and worked for 12 years for a Southeast Los Angeles firm in related fields.

He came to Angels organization early in 1967 because of the opportunities offered in a rapidly growing, youthful organization. He was named Pomona Angels manager after less than six months with the company.

He is a resident of Buena Park, living at 6980 Faculty Drive.

Now They Have Schools To Teach The Fine Art Of Pole!

General Telephone Company has developed a unique school to teach young men an extremely essential job found only in public utilities that use aerial wire suspended on telephone poles. The job is climbing telephone poles.

WALKING THE STICK
Old timers call climbing a telephone pole "walking the stick." In school training, it's a descriptive term. Before anyone walks, he must first crawl. An instructor, realizing this fact of nature, teaches his trainees from the beginning. Just as if he were teaching them to walk horizontally instead of vertically, his eight young men start off with safety instructions and a few humorous stories about those that didn't heed his safety instruction. After the safety instruction comes an orientation series on how to get all that hardware on and around you. Standard equipment is a pair of "gafts" or cleats that attach to the boot and stick in the wooden pole, a big wide safety belt, and a tool pouch attached to the belt. Proper dress for the work is covered in the safety instruction: Long sleeved shirts, heavy pants and high topped boots of a special construction which have extra support.

INDOOR CLASSES
Indoor classroom instruction over, the instructor takes his young apprentices outdoors where they will spend the rest of their training: on the instructor's verticle classroom, the telephone poles. The first verticle classroom that the trainees will become acquainted with is a short, fifteen foot pole. Here the apprentices reach their first test of courage. In the process of learning to "walk the stick," they have passed the crawling stage and are now taking their first "baby steps."

HIGHER POLES
Later, higher poles will be climbed. The prime purpose of the instruction is to give the students a thorough knowledge of what their equipment will accomplish, how to safely climb poles, and, importantly, build confidence. It should be noted that those steel pointed gafts only stick into the wooden pole about a quarter of an inch.

Building confidence is one of the most important parts of the training. With the instructor's help, confidence can be built and fear of height can be overcome. The instructor helps plenty! After his trainees get to the top of their highest pole he tosses up a basket ball for the apprentices to throw back and forth. He who drops the ball has to climb back down the pole and retrieve the "confidence builder." If the ball misses its mark as a result of a bad throw, the passer and not the receiver has to climb down and get the ball.

SELF-CONFIDENCE
According to the instructors, very few apprentices fail to become a member of their "human monkeys" team. It only takes average self confidence and reasonably good health. Once you accomplish something so insignificant as walking straight up, you can do it for years. "All right you monkeys, walk the stick!"

June--Month For Brides, And Naturally Anniversaries

June is the month for brides. But what about the lady who was a bride last June, or many Junes ago? For that lady, a present is in order. Perhaps just from her husband, perhaps from her children, and perhaps--particularly on a 10th, 25th, or 50th anniversary--from all her friends and relations.

We all know that silver is proper for a 25th wedding anniversary and gold for a 50th anniversary. But what of other years? There are several lists, and they differ on a few particulars. Here is the list, which has been expanded to include new products on the market.

First anniversary: Paper, plastics.

Second: Cotton.

Third: Leather, or any leatherlike article.

Fourth: Linen, silk, rayon, nylon, or other synthetic silks.

Fifth: Wood and decorative accessories for the home.

Sixth: Iron.

Seventh: Wool, cooper, or brass.

Eighth: Bronze, or electrical appliances.

Ninth: Pottery, china, glass, or crystal.

Tenth: Tin, or aluminum.

Eleventh: Steel.

Twelfth: Linen, silk, or nylon.

Thirteenth: Lace.

Fourteenth: Ivory, or agate.

Fifteenth: Crystal, or glass.

Twentieth: China, or occasional furniture.

Twenty-fifth: Silver.

Thirtieth: Pearls, or personal gifts.

Thirty-fifth: Coral, or jade.

Fortieth: Rubies, or garnets.

Forty-fifth: Sapphires, or tourmalines.

Fiftieth: Gold.

Fifty-fifth: Emeralds, or turquoise.

Sixtieth: Diamonds, or gold.

Silver Spurs To Schedule Fathers Night

Prizes will be given for the oldest father, youngest father, father with the most children, and to the club bringing the most fathers. Banners will be given for two or more squares.

OUTSTANDING HUMANITARIAN -- AID-United will award Victor M. Carter its "Humanitarian-of-the-Year" award at that organization's annual luncheon meeting on Tuesday, May 28, at the Biltmore Hotel Bowl, Los Angeles. The award is conferred annually for outstanding achievement in health and welfare activities and community betterment. Mr. Carter, noted civic, industrial, and philanthropic leader, served as 1967 campaign chairman of the United Crusade Drive in Los Angeles County.

Three-Year Olds Hollywood Special On Saturday

The cream of the West's three-year-old thoroughbreds will meet Saturday (June 14) at Hollywood Park in the $50,000 Cinema Handicap in one of their severest tests of the season. The distance will be a mile and one-eighth and for the first time in the 23-year history of the race it will be run on the turf on the Lakeside Course.

The Cinema is the last major stakes for the three-year-olds leading up to the $100,000 added Hollywood Derby on July 6, and traditionally has pointed out the leading contenders for that championship event. In the 22 previous runnings of the Cinema, 17 eventual Derby winners finished in the money. "Mrs. Montgomery Fisher's Proper Proof," winner of the $119,700 California Derby in April at Golden Gate Fields, is the likely heavyweight in the Cinema. Following a successful California campaign which saw him place in three stakes at Santa Anita in addition to his rich Golden Gate victory, he was shipped to Kentucky to face the best three-year-olds in the nation. There he defeated many of the East's best sophomores in the Derby Trial four days prior to the "Run for the Roses", but he failed to turn in one of his best races in the Derby and finished ninth.

RIVERTON, WYO., RANGER: "The ripple effect from the United Auto Workers settlement with Ford Motor Co. will soon cover the nation. UAW demanded and Ford finally agreed to a settlement that is in excess of any normal increase in productivity... Next in line for the ripple effect are those companies not in automobile manufacture, but working in the same geographic areas. To hold their skilled people, they feel constrained to meet the pressure from the top, the pressure from the bottom that will come with the mandatory increase next February in the minimum wage. Somehow, it all sounds inflationary."

Keep both hands on the wheel, to avoid accidents.

RACQUET CLUB WINS AGAIN

On Sunday, June 9 at Chaffey College courts the West End Racquet Club using the Ontario-Pomona Inland League Ladder participants did it again--a 20-5 win over visiting Corona.

Vic Green playing number two spot easily managed Jack Saunders (Corona) at 10-3 (PRO-set) and then when our number one player for the day could not make it due to other commitments, Vic was called upon to play Corona's Jim Allen in the number one spot; after a tired start Vic was able to obtain his second wind and with the aid of his "Super Serve" come on with a 10-7 win.

Mel Eagle looked secure all the way holding his win at 10-5 over Duke Edmundson (Corona's Team Captain). Penny Thomas held the women's top position with her strong desire to win, by outplaying a very fine player for Corona, Shirley Wilcox. Their score was 10-4.

Elinor Pierson displayed her consistent playing ability with a win of 10-3 against Shirley Saunders of Corona. Many other participants played very well and did enjoy the outing.

Future matches in June are with San Bernardino on the 23rd and with Redlands on the 30th, both being held at the Chaffey College Courts at noon. All spectators in the area are welcome, no charge, to see good tennis in action.

WERG meets every Saturday morning from 7:30 to 11:30 and every Wednesday evening from 7 to 10 at the Chaffey College courts. Potential members are invited.

Red Means Stop

Every driver knows what red means. It means stop!

"Unfortunately not all drivers observe the law that requires them to stop when the light is red," Captain Vern Nicholson of the California Highway Patrol said today. "Many try to beat that red light, by going through an intersection long after the amber light comes on. 'What does this have to do with you? Well, it could mean a bad accident if you become involved with one of these drivers.' 'You should always wait a moment and check cross traffic before entering the intersection when the light turns green for you. There could be some driver trying to get through the intersection at the last moment. 'A second's delay could add a great deal to your safety.'"

Charter Oak Short $326,435 For Budget of $5,997,956

CHARTER OAK—The school administration here has worked up a preliminary budget for next year that would cost just a shade under $6 million.

The budget, pegging expenditures at $5,997,956, exceeds predicted income by $326,435, according to Dist. Supt. Frank Kittinger. It is $850,000 higher than the final budget for the current year.

Kittinger told the Charter Oak School Board Tuesday four avenues are open: The board could reduce the expenditures; it could raise the tax levies; more state money than anticipated might become available; or the district could turn to its $500,000 reserve to make up the balance.

Indications were the district would cut the budget.

One of the probable cuts is in the repayment of state school building loan which during the current year cost the district $18,019 but for the next year was estimated at $37,318. The superintendent said much of that expenditure could be postponed.

Kittinger told the trustees that more than $262,000 of the additional expenditures would go to pay the district's employees. The figure includes a 7-percent raise for teachers and a 5-percent increase for classified employees.

The higher budget also would provide for four more administrators and 14 additional teachers to take care of the district's growth.

Estimated revenue for next year includes $3,265,722 in state apportionment, about $2 million from local taxes, and most of the rest from the state and the federal government for special education.

Special projects include, subsidizing programs for the mentally retarded, the physically and educationally handicapped, and the gifted.

Of the total budget, $4,166,708 is earmarked for the cost of instruction.

A. T. Richardson Awards Winners Are Announced

Pomona Valley Community Hospital and a local insurance firm will receive Tuesday the first A. T. Richardson Awards for excellence in development of their sites.

City officials announced plans to honor the hospital and Averbeck Building at the chamber of commerce's Vital Issues Breakfast at 7:30 a.m. at Cal Poly.

Both winners were chosen by the Pomona planning commission for 1967 achievement becoming the inaugural selections of what is to be an annual program.

The commissioners also took advantage of their prerogative under the program to make special awards and handed out four.

These cited the CUNA Mutual and California Credit League development at Garey Avenue and Olive Street and three Pomona Mall buildings — the Buffums' store, Home Savings and Loan and Lytton Savings and Loan.

All special awards recognized construction in the last five years.

The commission praised the Averbeck building for aesthetic quality, a design fitting the site and blending with the surrounding residential development and landscaping "of a high standard." The structure is at 1800 N. Garey Ave.

The hospital won for its comprehensive master plan and first-stage implementation of the plan with construction of new parking spaces.

The special citations mentioned such factors as architectural design, landscaping and aesthetic quality.

The awards were named in honor of A. T. Richardson, Progress-Bulletin board chairman. Richardson will make the presentation of plaques to representatives of the winning structures and planning commission chairman Dr. Kenneth Williams will also participate in the program.

Speaker at the breakfast will be Dr. Glenn Dumke, chancellor of the California State Colleges.

LANCASTER, S.C., NEWS: "In January of 1967, Treasury Secretary Fowler warned Congress that if the national debt limit was not increased, the government would not be able to cover more than half the March Social Security checks. For this and other reasons, the debt limit was increased. This, it should be added, was not unusual. Congress receives this warning at the beginning of every year. What it means, simply, is that all the money millions of Americans have poured into Social Security since 1935 has been paid out just as fast as it came in. There is no Social Security kitty. There is no insurance or retirement fund but an obligation on taxpayers to be met out of annual revenues."

DID YOU KNOW?

The main lesson the United States can learn from the Middle East oil crisis is the necessity for a strong domestic oil industry and the key role the percentage depletion allowance has played in forging a viable oil industry in this country. These were among the main points stressed by Raleigh Warner, Jr., president of Mobil Oil Corporation. This country's oil needs were met this year only because the domestic industry was able to increase production of crude oil by more than a million barrels a day at the height of the crisis, Mr. Warner told the analysts. The percentage depletion provision, he added, has provided both incentive and capital to help find enough oil to give this nation the excess producibility "that becomes almost priceless in an emergency."

Reforestation and timber land improvement work were carried out on 164,000 acres of National Forest lands in the Pacific Northwest Region in fiscal year 1967. This represents an 8 per cent increase over the 150,000 acres where work was done the previous year, reports Mr. Charles A. Connaughton, Regional Forester, U. S. Forest Service.

Economic progress will be faster and smoother when the labor movement "grows up," Mr. Allan Shivers, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States noted. "Capital has grown wiser, management more efficient, the consumer more discriminating, but labor clings to its old-time privileges like an insecure child hanging onto a family toy."

Fire Warning Notices Posted In LA Mountains

"No Smoking -- No Fires" signs have been posted throughout the brush covered areas of Los Angeles County because of increasing high fire danger, County Fire Chief Keith E. Klinger announced today.

All areas served by the County of Los Angeles Fire Department which are posted as "closed areas" and smoking and open fires of all kinds are prohibited by ordinance.

"Because of the early end of our winter rains, the hillsides are becoming dangerously dry," said Chief Klinger. "The unseasonal hot, dry winds during Easter week quickly reduced the moisture content of the brush."

In areas where the "No Smoking" signs have been posted, smoking is prohibited in cars, on horseback, and in all places except those of habitation and those posted as "safe smoking areas."

DISASTROUS

"Last year's disastrous brush fires burned over 10,000 acres throughout Los Angeles County. More than 50 homes and other buildings were either damaged or destroyed during these fires," said the Chief.

"Every resident and every motorist in our watershed areas has a responsibility to help prevent fire," Klinger reminded. "On hot, dry, windy days, a tiny spark can turn the hillsides-- and the homes -- into an inferno."

Rainfall for this year is down considerably from 1967 accounting for the early dry-out.

"Our Castro Peak lookout tower in the Malibu has recorded 20.19 inches of rain to date. Last year at this time we had received 32.71 inches," the Chief said.

"Our Padua Hills station in the San Gabriel Valley has recorded 14.81 inches of rain to date; last year they had received 35.73 inches at this time," Klinger stated, and added that the Newhall fire headquarters has recorded 14.22 inches compared with last year's to date figure of 25 inches of rainfall.

Chief Klinger especially cautioned new residents in brush areas who may not be familiar with the dangers of a fast-moving brush fire.

The Veterans Administration pays out $2.3 billion annually in non-service-connected benefits to needy veterans, widows and parents of veterans.

Educational assistance was paid to 446,000 veterans during fiscal year 1967.
